Smartest of Imported Hats in Models Displayed at Thursday's Openings.

The handsome hats and bonnets at Thursday's openings had many promptakers, the early sale being unusually satisfactory. There are still many beautiful models left, however, and today's shoppers are certain to be pleased with the designs and offerings. Conspicuous among the striking hats seen yesterday was a high-backed turban in olive panne velvet, with draped fancy band of olive and handsome peacock plumes.

A big white model in hatter's plush had a black satin ribbon drape, and a natty black feather pompon.

One of the favored small hats was of anemone, beaver its elegant adornment two graceful anemone plumes held in place by a jeweled ornament.

A box turban of blue Bengaline had a black velvet band, trimming of the fashionable tarnished gold, and black agrette.

Essentially smart was a helmet turban of black satin, with flange of black velvet, and effective trimming of two strict plumes at the back.

Very novel and attractive was a steep turban in seal brown, with the new serpentine wings in brown and white, and brown ribbon drape.

Of black and white, a handsome shape in Persian silk, veiled with pink chiffon, having a black velvet flange.
This was a double hat, the lace cap having a pretty rosette of pink ribbon.

A black and white model, trimmed with a band of black lynx, black agrette, and jet buckle. Most striking of models was a black panne Charlotte Corday.
Its garniture velvet poppies of richest scarlet.

An imported Alken hat was in the newest combination, old blue and wistaria, with silver band and wistaria, and old blue and wistaria, which bore the unmistakable stamp of Parisian style.

The display of fashionable headgear goes merrily on and today many choice models were offered for the inspection of intending buyers.

The wise shopper will study The Bulletin's advertising columns this morning, noting where modish mill-nery is to be found.

STEWART DOUGLAS.

Former Norwich Man for New York State Senator.

The New Rochelle Pioneer of September 17 says:

The candidacy of John F. Healy for state senator is not running as smoothly, it appears, as the local democratic leader would wish. Latest developments show that Councilman Stewart Douglas and his admirers are so ungrateful to the boss as to place the councilman's name in opposition to that of Healy in the race for senator.

This state of affairs, which also shows disorder in the democratic ranks, is said to daily increase the anguish of Boss Healy and cause his admirers to be dimmed not a little. The Douglas cohorts admit quite readily that they believe Healy has a chance to land the nomination, but want to show Healy that he does not dominate local democratic politics.

ASSOCIATION

Semi-Annual Meeting and Election of Officers for New Term.

On Wednesday evening the semi-annual meeting of the Loyal Temperance association was held at the home of Levi S. Saunders. The following officers were elected: President, Levi S.
Saunders; first vice president, George L. Yeomans; second vice president, Sterling Nelson; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Levi S. Saunders; chaplain, Charles H. Ames; trustees, George Yeomans, C. H. Ames, Sterling Nelson; chorister, Louis Frazier; organist, Mrs. Hannah Craunton.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and approved, showing that services had been held every Sunday afternoon and every week ending in different parts of the city and town. A catalog of the organ and 50 singing books have been purchased. The bills are all paid and there is a balance of $5 in the treasury.

First Baptists Accept Resignation

Rev. W. T. Thayer Will Go to Wallingford—Date for Termination of Relations to be Determined.

After the regular prayer meeting of the First Baptist church on Thursday evening, a business meeting was held to take action on the resignation of the pastor, Rev. W. T. Thayer, which had been presented at the church service last Sunday morning.
At that time it was voted to defer the same was seconded by Edward C. Power, and several spoke in eulogy of the retiring pastor before the vote was put and passed.

In a few words Jacob Starkweather referred to Rev. Mr. Thayer's pastorate as one which much good had been accomplished. The years had been ones of profit and many young people had been gathered into the fold. He referred especially to the helpfulness of Mrs. Thayer.

Mr. Lathrop spoke of harmony between pastor and people and the fact that great good had been accomplished by the pastor. The church and its production ought to be accepted, as he believed that was what Rev. Mr.
Thayer expected.

Mr. Cowan, who had been one of the committee who called Rev. Mr.
Thayer to the church three and a half years ago, commended the work of the pastor and his wife as fruitful of blessings to the church and as productive of results which would be seen as the years unfolded. Between pastor and people there was the kindest feeling and a thorough sense of blessing.

The beautiful thing about this resignation said Chairman Gardner, was the good feeling between pastor and people. Rev. Mr. Thayer had done a work to be proud of and the church can bid him godspeed for the journey of life to carry on the same labors with their hearty best wishes. Mr.
Power also expressed his appreciation of the pastor's faithful work.

The vote was taken by rising and was in favor of accepting the resignation, although a few of the young people voted against it. The date when relations between pastor and people should be severed was left to the deacons and pastor to decide upon after consultation. This concluded the business of the meeting and adjourned.

Rev. Mr. Thayer has a call to a Baptist church at Wallingford and asked in his resignation that he might be released from the church here as soon after October 1 as might be considered advisable.

A motion by Frank L. Lathrop to action on the resignation until the Thursday evening meeting.

This was well attended and was conducted by Walter M. Cowan, who turned the meeting over at its conclusion to Frank D. Davis, the church clerk. Ernest H. Gardner, senior deacon of the church, was elected chairman, and the letter of resignation was read for the information of any who might not have been at the church service when it was presented.

action on the resignation until the
Thursday evening meeting.

MURPHY GETS OUT

OF LAST PLACE

Made a Break into Victory Column, After Losing 14 in Croquet Tournament.

Surprises were in store on Thursday in the Open House croquet games, when Murphy, who had not previously won a game in 14, started out by defeating Colberg two straight, and followed it up by two wins over McKee-hon, who has been considered one of the strongest players in the list. These four games boosted Murphy out of the tail end position in the standing.

McMahon was in poor form today, as his two games lost to Murphy were followed up by four more lost, which robbed him of all possible chance he had of tying Avery for first.
He was the only one left who has a chance to dispute first place with Avery, so that the prophesies made some time ago that the latter would win cannot now be used.

The games played Thursday night were the following: Murphy beat Col-berg twice, Murphy beat McMahon twice, McMahon beat McKeehon twice, Col-berg beat Friswell twice, Friswell beat McMahon twice.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Potter in Water street, North Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock, when Miss A. Delma Eldredge of Fishers Island, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Eldredge, was united in marriage to W. Howard Best of Norwich. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Potter. The house had been prettily decorated and the room where the ceremony took place represented a flower garden, the walls and every possible place being covered with them. After the ceremony the guests were served refreshments and the couple left in an automobile on a honeymoon trip, after which they will reside in Cincinnati.

The bride was attended by her niece, Miss Laura Brooks of Fishers Island, and A. C. Ware of New London acted as best man.

The bride was attired in Paris cloth over white silk, which was sent from the Philippine Islands by a brother-in-law of the bride. Presents consisting of silverware, cut glass, linen and gold pieces were received by the bride.

TENNIS MATCHES

ARE NEARING THE CLOSE

A. Brown Will Be One of the Contestants in Finals—Team Going to Storrs Saturday.

Several fast matches in the singles in the tennis tourney at the Storrs club grounds were played off Thursday, bringing Alyn L. Brown into the finals and Mitchell to meet Lyman in the semi-finals. It is expected that the final round to decide the championship will be played early next week.

In the second round Mitchell played Arnold, defeating him in straight sets, although the first went to deuce. The scores were 7-5, 6-4. Lyman and Foss had a tight struggle in their match in the second round, but Lyman won out. He took first set, Foss got the second, and Lyman the third and deciding. The scores: 6-2, 3-6, 6-2.

In the semi-finals, Alyn L. Brown and Taintor played off, Brown winning in straight sets, but Taintor forced it to a deuce set in the first. The scores were 7-5, 4-6. This leaves Brown as the winner of the Lyman-Mitchell match for the championship.

On Saturday afternoon Brown, Mitchell, Frank H. Foss and W. Tyler of Storrs will go to Storrs to play a set of matches with Storrs college professors and others.

which receives the canoe attaches to it some souvenir emblematic of the town before passing it on to the next stopping place. Tecumseh tribe will follow this custom before sending the canoe on its journey.

Among the noticeable emblems already attached are a small brown derby hat, jackknife, fountain pen, nickel plated scales, monkey wrench and anchor, currycomb, fishline, typewriter, hit in every number was the offering at the Auditorium on Thursday for the midweek change of bill and was applauded as the best of the season in that house by large audiences. Harris, splitting Laughing Horse hold over capture the big hand at every performance.

a winner. Jennie Gerard, singing com-quality and range, much above the or-
